Cayenne 206-204-1188

1100 Broadway, Seattle Capitol Hill

Bright and festive inside, Cayenne is the first restaurant to be added to a Silver Cloud hotel. Because it is in a hotel and in the neighborhood of Swedish Medical Center and Seattle University, three meals a day are offered, along with happy hour. This is "South of the Border" with a twist and you'll like some of the new flavor combinations. In addition to the Latin dishes, they offer a broad range of menu items to appeal to all tastes.

Specializing in Latin, American, Happy Hour.

Copacabana 206-622-6359

1520 First Ave, Seattle Pike Place

From its second-floor perch, Copacabana offers a look over the main drag through Pike Place Market--it's a never-ending fascination. Bolivian dishes include meat and vegetable pies and spicy shrimp soup.

Specializing in Latin.

Dulces Latin Bistro 206-322-5453

1430 34th Ave, Seattle Madrona

Latin cuisine includes a plethora of lovely dishes to choose from. Try the pecan pie to soothe your sweet tooth. If you're looking for a romantic spot, put this at the top of your list. Cigars? Try the cigar room--it has a great ventilation system. There's a very nice wine list here as well.

Specializing in Latin, Dessert, Wine, Romance.

Harvest Vine 206-320-9771

2701 E Madison St, Seattle Madison Valley

The Spanish and Basque eating environment is perfectly recreated here as people mingle and share their large and tasty portions at a communal table or smaller, more intimate tables.

Enjoy wonderful tapas and wines.

Specializing in Latin, Tapas, Wine.

Ibiza Dinner Club 206-381-9090

528 2nd Ave, Seattle Pioneer Square

Gauzy curtains create a hallway back to the bar and around to the main dining area. Kind of fun when you walk in, almost necessary as you walk out after a few cocktails--it's nice to have the exit marked so clearly. Great looking lounge area to the right. This place is so nuevo that the sinks are co-ed outside the bathrooms. Although the main dishes look very intriguing, it's hard to get away from the tapas. Fresh, flavorful and

Marco's Supper Club 206-441-7801

2510 1st Ave, Seattle Belltown

Marco's is an interesting mix of Latin and many other cultural influences. The interior is a mix also--casual and funky and trendy. A small sidewalk eating area is great on warm days. Definitely a spot to check out. Specializing in Latin, Eclectic.

Mixtura 425-803-3310

148 Lake St S, Kirkland Kirkland

You may not think of Peruvian cuisine as influenced by Asia and Europe, but the history is here to taste and explore. Mixtura offers "novoandina cuisine"--modern technique and presentation with traditional flavors and ingredients.

Specializing in Latin (Peruvian), Asian, European, Cocktails, Banquet (up to 30).

Tango 206-583-0382

1100 Pike St, Seattle Capitol Hill

This restaurant is housed in an old porn house, but manages to maintain a classy yet sexy feel to it. The entrees are limited but the tapas are excellent, interesting and numerous. And speaking of numerous, check out the tequila choices.
